126 Medford 21 July 1853

My dear Sir

Rhulten May says that I may address to you my reply to the invitation, with which he honors me, to be present and say something, at the grove, on the approaching celebration of West India abolition. —

In reply, then, let me say, that, Deo Volente, whether I say any thing or not, I will be that.

Yours and the slave's,

R. Purvis

Wm Lloyd Garrison